Whereas; Janna Hudson, a published author of children's books, and her husband, Dustin, have raised their beautiful four children in Ward 6 living a full life of service; and

Whereas; Janna, after a successful career in sales and marketing, Janna recently joined the City of Las Vegas and serves as the Facilities and Event Coordinator overseeing one of the City's crown jewels - Floyd Lamb Park at Tule Springs;; and

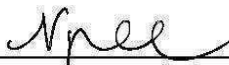

Whereas; after observing the community's concern about the sustainability of the peacocks that call Floyd Lamb Park home, Janna took the initiative to find a solution and created and passionately advocated for a new City of Las Vegas Peafowl Preservation Program; and

Whereas; Janna, with limited resources but a lot of passion, has single-handedly assembled strategic partners, including the Gilcrease Nature Sanctuary and Arbor View High School, and built a successful Peafowl Preservation Program, which has welcomed new peahens and the successful birth of chicks thus ensuring that the City of Las Vegas is one step closer to preserving the peacocks that are a quintessential part of the special character of Floyd Lamb Park at Tule Springs; and now

Therefore; We, the Mayor and Members of the Las Vegas City Council, do hereby proclaim July 17, 2024, as:

"Janna S. Hudson Day"

In The City of Las Vegas and we call on all citizens to observe this day.

Whereas; Jennifer Langford grew up on a small farm in Washington where her love for animals and rural life was established; and

Whereas; after Jennifer's husband, Kyle, retired as a Master Sergeant in the U.S. Air Force, the couple decided to make Las Vegas home and settled here to raise their three children; and

Whereas; Jennifer began volunteering in 2022 at the Gilcrease Nature Sanctuary, an exotic pet and farm animal rescue, located in Ward 6, and after 15 months of volunteering was asked to serve as the Executive Director in July 2023; and

Whereas; Jennifer continues to promote the nonprofit's mission of protecting our exotic birds and animals, and promoting responsible pet ownership and community engagement; and

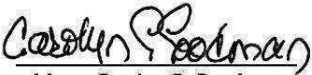

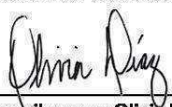

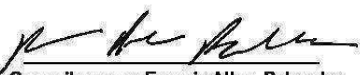

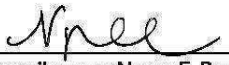

Whereas; Jennifer's commitment to Las Vegas and Floyd Lamb Park and animal and bird protection has prompted her to help the City of Las Vegas develop its new Peafowl Preservation Program; and

Whereas; Jennifer has generously dedicated tens of dozens of volunteer hours to the City of Las Vegas sharing her knowledge of animal husbandry and peacocks with our City of Las Vegas team and developing new partnerships; and now

Therefore; We, the Mayor and Members of the Las Vegas City Council, do hereby proclaim July 17, 2024, as:

"Jennifer Langford Day"

In The City of Las Vegas and we call on all citizens to observe this day.
