- Commits $100M of state funds to match $100M of private funds for construction
- Establishes GOED as the agency to oversee application process and requirements
- Commits $15M annually from the state for operations, to be matched with an equal amount from local jurisdictions

AB 528 of the 2023 Legislative Session— Local Jurisdictions

- In order to participate in the Campus for Hope, local jurisdictions must:
  - Have a navigation center or process for navigating individuals experiencing homelessness
  - Contribute to the matching $15M for operational costs
  - Have a plan to provide affordable, attainable workforce development and permanent supportive housing
- Individuals and families would need to be referred to the Campus for Hope and meet certain criteria
- Additional services available will include housing, case management, mental health treatment, substance abuse treatment, primary care, and job placement

Charleston & Jones Site

(SNAMHS Campus)

- SNAMHS campus currently includes the Rawson-Neal Psychiatric Hospital
- DHHS completed a master plan for the campus that includes expansion of services on the site, as well as a new forensic hospital
- Services contemplated at C4H were all included in the DHHS master plan
- C4H portion of the property currently hosts a variety of services for at-risk youth populations that will need to be relocated before any construction
