Putting Our Residents
First!

It was so much fun to be part of the Summerlin Area Command's Safe Village Christmas Party at the Escena Apartment complex. This was a fantastic way for our police to connect with the residents of Ward 2.

I am grateful to all those who joined us at the Ward 2 Holiday Mingle. Thank you, Arsine, at The Cobblestone Cottage for hosting. It is always great to gather with old friends and make new ones as we celebrate the holiday season.

We had another great Breakfast, Buzz and Ward 2 Biz. Thank you to Summerlin Area Command Captain LaPore, Lieutenant Alvarado, and City Marshal Paul Hartz for answering all the public safety questions. It was a privilege to present Lieutenant Alvarado with a proclamation for his service to the community as a law enforcement officer with Metro for 25 years, as he will be retiring at the end of the month.

I want to thank our city Marshalls and my team for joining me in spreading holiday joy at the Summerlin Hospital Medical Center in Ward 2. It is always special for me to visit the children there during the Christmas season, sharing a teddy bear, a tree ornament, and my wishes for a speedy recovery and a Merry Christmas.

The Mira Villa
Community Association party was a delightful event and community gathering and I am so thankful that I was able to attend.

Councilwoman Around the City

I presented a proclamation at Mondays Dark at the Palms, recognizing them for raising money for local nonprofits. I considered it a great privilege to present the Excellence Awards for Vegas Legal Magazine. Lastly, I welcomed Mayor Weinberg of Aventura, Florida, to our beautiful city and give him a tour of City Hall.
