WIN Court Graduation

Chief Judge Cynthia Leung

invites you to join her in recognizing, honoring and celebrating the journey of Kistal Chamonta Mack at her WIN Court Graduation.

WIN Court is a Trauma- Responsive Treatment Court that addresses the recidivism of women offenders enmeshed in criminal behaviors and substance abuse by targeting the root of the issue- Trauma.

Through WIN Court, the women learn the tools to change their way of thinking and learn to make positive choices. They discover their self-worth and that they absolutely matter in this world. The women develop and integrate their inner strengths daily in order to move forward from their past into vital, courageous, empowered women for whom everything and anything is possible.

WIN Court women invent their own destiny as they embrace a life of confidence and commitment to success and service.

May 30, 2024

Court Department 1

100 E. Clark Ave.

Kistal Chamonta Mack our 63rd graduate, has faced a life of trauma, substance use and many obstacles. Throughout the last two years, this amazing woman embraced a commitment to her Recovery, and re-connected with family. She has discovered her strengths, self-worth, a new vision, and a new life.

Kistal has refused to let her past define her. She has risen to complete the rigorous tasks required of her from WIN Court, transforming her hopes and dreams into a bright future.

The WIN Court Team is very proud of the inspiring, strong woman she has become. Through her journey and successes, she has blossomed into a leader and role model helping and supporting others to find their way. Kistal embarks on a future that is unlimited!
