Putting Our Residents First!

Submitted at Meeting
Date: 1/17/24 Item: 54
By Staff

I want to thank all the animal rescues who joined me to meet with James Dzurenda, Director of the Nevada Department of Corrections, and Warden William Reubart of the Florence McClure Women's Correctional Center to discuss how we can expand the Pups on Parole program. This program helps inmates gain dog training skills they can use when they get out, and helps foster and train dogs with behavior issues so they can find forever homes.

I want to congratulate to the Young Israel Aish Las Vegas and my dear Rabbi Wyne on a highly successful event this evening. I had the privilege of presenting proclamations on behalf of the City of Las Vegas to Rabbi Moshe, Rebbetzin Dassi Orlowek, Eliezer, and Kelly Mizrachi for their outstanding service to the Jewish community.

I presented a Certificate of Recognition at the grand opening and ribbon-cutting ceremony of William B's Steakhouse at the Suncoast Hotel and Casino. This glamorous restaurant is a tribute to William "Bill" Boyd, co-founder and chairman emeritus of Boyd Gaming, the owner of the Suncoast.

Councilwoman Nancy Brune and I co-hosted a crucial town hall meeting tonight, focusing on educating parents about the risks of human trafficking for their children. Special thanks to our emcee, Gerard Ramalho, and our valued community partners, including Awareness is Prevention, Power2Parent, B.E. A SHERO Foundation, Nevada Policy Council on Human Trafficking, and Metro Detectives, for their active participation in this event.

We had another great Breakfast, Buzz and Ward 2 Biz. Thank you to Summerlin Area Lieutenant Matt Arnold and City Marshal Paul Hartz for answering all the public safety questions.
