Hi Trinity-

I see this is coming up again. Again, I oppose this. While I believe this owner would be respectful of neighbors, once it's rezoned I could have anything next door. There is no parking on Eastern, so additional parking would be directly in front of my home. Also this building is less than 10 feet from our actual house. It's just too close for comfort. He may have parking spaces, but the intersection at Oakey and Eastern is already so busy, anyone trying to go in and out of it will create more hazardous traffic right there, which then flows over to Oakey which is a residential street. If you have any other questions, please feel free to talk to me.

Thanks,
Amber Garrett
