CONCERTS IN THE PARK

Las Vegas Percussion Collective Saturday, April 8 | 7-9 P.M.

Centennial Hills Park Amphitheatre
7101 N. Buffalo Drive at Deer Springs Way

The Las Vegas Percussion Collective features four of Las Vegas' premier percussionists who collectively have played in many of the major productions on the Las Vegas Strip over the past decade. Led by Alex Stopa, the group brings percussion instruments to the forefront, performing music that highlights the versatility and musicality of the percussion family. The Las Vegas Percussion Collective features a wide range of percussion instruments including marimba, vibraphone, glockenspiel, drums, percussion of the symphony orchestra, and lesser known ethnic percussion instruments. This performance will showcase a wide range of musical styles and influences by composers from Japan, Latin America, Europe, Australia and the United States.
