5. Recognition of the Employee of the Month

Minutes:

MAYOR GOODMAN invited CHIEF JASON POTTS, Department of Public Safety Director, to the podium to help recognize OFFICER ANDY REYES as the October Employee of the Month. OFFICER REYES joined the City in 2014 and works as a Property Officer to assess the costs of items used in the city jail. The jail uses around 950 boxes of protective gloves each month, which costs the Department around $9,500 every 30 days. The Officer researched cheaper, fentanyl-resistant gloves that will save the City nearly $35,000 each year. The Mayor appreciated OFFICER REYES' forward thinking, noting the gloves were safer for officers to use.

CHIEF POTTS thanked the Councilmembers and City management for their support and wished them a happy Boss's Day. He stated that Corrections Officers are unsung heroes in law enforcement, noting they help people on the worst days of their lives. Further, he said they offer programs to break incarceration cycles. The Chief appreciated OFFICER REYES' dedication to bettering the Department and the City.

LIEUTENANT TIFFANY DENT clarified that the Property Team orders items for inmates in custody. She acknowledged OFFICER REYES for finding the gloves and saving the City money, and CHIEF POTTS noted that OFFICER MICHAEL WEYAND and KENNETRA BLISSETT, Business Specialist, were involved in the team effort.

OFFICER REYES expressed love for the City and thanked the Department and several City staff members.
